

The Problem of the Month
February 2021

Imagine a pyramid with a square $2N \times 2N$ base and altitude N . Suppose that a cube were placed inside this pyramid so that its upper four corners were situated on the lines where neighboring faces of the pyramid met. Now inscribe a sphere inside this cube. Find the volume of this sphere in terms of N .

